

6th SIP PLANNING AWARDS 2019

The 6th SIP Planning Award received a total of 58 impressive submissions from both SIP members and international participants. Through a detailed process of online judging and a two-day deliberation by the panel of judges, a total of 26 submissions were recognised. Many of the submissions demonstrated the complexity of the challenges presented and the multi-faceted solutions developed, addressing a wide range of issues encompassing the socio-economic, geo-political, and physical attributes of the planning sites.

The Jury, comprising President of SIP Wilfred Loo, Immediate Past President of SIP Evlyn Cheong,

Vice President of SIP Nina Yang, Council Member of SIP Dr Wynn Chi Nguyen Cam, URA Deputy CEO, Han Yong Hoe, LTA Deputy Director of Transport Research Division Dr. Evan Gwee, Member of the Experts Panel of the Centre for Liveable Cities Wong Kai Yeng, Executive Fellow of the Centre for Liveable Cities Michael Koh, Founder of Atelier Dreiseitl and Ramboll's Liveable Cities Lab Herbert Dreiseitl, and Assistant Professor Oscar Carracedo of NUS Master of Urban Design, oversaw the judging. The 6th SIP Award Winning Projects 2019 are showcased in this section.
